What should be included with the application?

Be sure the following is submitted with the application:

- Proof of tax-exempt status
- Completed W-9
- Financial statements and/or tax returns for 2019, 2020, and 2021

What happens next?

The committee will review all applications. Grant awards and funding will be completed by

March 31, 2023.

Has your nonprofit struggled because of COVID-19?

If your nonprofit organization has struggled with one of the following because of the COVID-19 pandemic, you may qualify for a grant opportunity:

- Decreased revenue
- Financial insecurity
- Capacity to weather financial hardship
- Increased costs
- Challenges covering payroll, rent, mortgage, or other operating costs

If you are claiming decreased revenue, financial insecurity, or capacity to weather financial hardship

Include financial statements and/or tax returns. The committee will use these documents to:

- Determine proof of decreased revenue (contributions, donations, etc.)
- Determine the changes in financial situation (decrease revenue, increase costs, cash flow)
- Determine what capacity they have now to be used for future expenses

If you are claiming increased costs or challenges covering operating costs

Include proof of increased costs related to the organization (rental agreements, changes in payroll, increase in utilities, etc.).

COVID Impact Statement

You will be asked to provide a short statement detailing how the COVID pandemic impacted your organization.

Grant Use Statement

Provide a short statement on how you plan to use grant funds if they are awarded to your organization.
